Maths		Topic
Watch Miss Denning's video on finding half of larger numbers. If you're not ready for this, carry on practising finding half of numbers up to 20. You can use anything you can find around the house – e.g. sweets, mini-eggs, pencils, pasta.....		If possible, print out a blank world map and label the continents and oceans (we did this back in the autumn term too). Can you find where Columbus was from and where he wanted to go/where he actually sailed to? Label each part.
Useful websites: Teach your little monster to read – a fun site for teaching phonics and early reading skills. Twinkl has a great range of information on Columbus
