

Summer Term – Week 1

It looks like the children have been enjoying starting to learn all about Roman Britain and what life was like then. The triangle challenge in Thursday's maths was also popular and we loved seeing the amazing stories that you wrote based on the picture of the girl in the bath!

Here is a selection of some of the wonderful learning we have seen.

