Monday 11.05.20.	Watch this video about onomatopoeia https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/z4mmn39/articles/z8t3g82 Copy out the poem, writing the onomatopoeia words in a different colour. Booming and Banging thunder in the air Crashing and Rumbling waves against wet rock Bombing and scraping, lighting the sky Swishing and Sloshing rain on a windscreen Metallic thuds on a tin roof Swishing and Swashing the flooding roads Howling and Moaning, wind attacking Wavering, Crashing and Sizzling Power everywhere Thudding and Banging hail on every window Slamming and Echoing doors in the house Then choose a line from the poem to illustrate.	These are your spellings this week. deafening scorching searing sizzling blistering sweltering chilly frozen arctic bitter wintry Practice them a little every day and then ask someone to test you on them on Friday. Let us know how you get on. For today's practice, use some of the spelling words in a short piece of descriptive writing. For example: As the searing heat beat down on the exhausted group, they dragged themselves over the scorching sand. The sun's blistering rays were their enemy.	Use this link to go to Summer Term Week 2 (w/d 27th April) https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/year-6/ Then do Lesson 2 - Angles in regular polygons <hr/> Remember you don't have to print off the worksheet, you can do your working out and sketches in your book.	We are now entering Week 4 of the summer term and it has been completely different to any other summer term you have experienced. Take a little time to think about your hopes and dreams for the summer and then complete the activity below. You could do a mixture of words and drawings.  IMAGINE THAT THIS IS THE SUMMER WHEN A DREAM THAT DWELLS DEEP WITHIN YOU FINALLY COMES TRUE. WHAT HAPPENS?
