Tuesday 12th May	Re-read the report on “The Truth about Trolls” – use the punctuation to help you know when to pause or take a breath. Pick some of the words which are written in bold and write them down. What do you THINK each word means? Read the whole sentence and think about what would make sense? Now use a dictionary to check if you were right. If you don’t have a dictionary at home you could use an online one.	All aboard for amazing alliteration BBC Bitesize has a lovely introduction to alliteration. Please follow the link to: https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zfkk7ty/articles/zq4c7p3 Using the troll inspired nouns from yesterday can you use two adjectives that start with the same sound – this repetition is called alliteration? For example, bright, bulbous eyes huge, hairy ears Writing Tip – “Has every word earned its place?” Make sure both adjectives you have used to describe your troll are telling the reader something different. For example, large, big nose doesn’t work	Year 2 Watch this video to remind you how to tell the time using o’clock, half past and quarter past/to and then complete the attached worksheet by writing the time for each clock. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=86RbCwhdJSs Year 3 Watch this video to remind you how to tell the time to the nearest 5 minutes and then complete the attached worksheet by writing the time for each clock. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QJkYONqIYQM	 Music https://youtu.be/I3ftMpeUXvU There is also manuscript paper for this lesson.

		because large and big are really saying the same thing. You can use the following nouns for your alliteration Nouns from yesterday: Eyes Ears Nose Hands Teeth Horns Hair
