

School Closure Daily Planning- Crystal Class

DATE	Reading	Writing	Mathematics	Topic
Monday 22nd June	Aesop's Fables – The Fox and the Grapes.  Answer the questions.	Spellings – Science words Adaptation, environment, territory, chromosome, genes, adaptive traits, mutation, replication, fortuitous. Task 1 – Look up the definition of unknown words and copy it down. Task 2 – Put each spelling into an interesting sentence. Challenge – try to make links to our topic on evolution. Task 3 – Rainbow writing. Task 4 – Make your own wordsearch.	Mathletics/ Cool maths games – Fractions	Science – Go through the attached PPT. To find out about how the work of scientists has helped develop our understanding of the process of evolution.  Plenary Can you link two or more of these words in a statement to show what you have learned about evolution? evolution variation plants natural selection parent offspring growth development animals reproduce advantageous population disadvantageous   Name: _____ Date: _____ Can you think of some questions about evolution and inheritance? What do you not understand? What do you want to know more about? Write them in the space below. Divide the questions you have written down. Are there any that you already know the answers to? Are there any questions that you cannot answer? Tick any questions you want able to answer. Each choose an interesting question to answer. Use books, CD ROMs, and the internet to research your question. Remember to tell your class teacher at another time to record your findings. <small>Copyright © Houghton Mifflin Harcourt 2014</small>

Corsham Regis Primary Academy

