

Friday 22nd January Reading

Today we are looking at inference. This is when you use evidence provided by the author to draw your own conclusions. Often we have to use the information the author gives us to work out things for ourselves. This is using inference skills

1. In the first paragraph of the fiction part of the tale, what evidence is there that it is extremely cold?

In the first paragraph the evidence that it is extremely cold is _____.

2. Why do you think the young orphan boy decided to search for the chinook?
3. How do we know that the journey is going to be dangerous?
4. Why do you think the friends were successful in their quest?
5. How do you think the young boy felt when he returned to the village?
6. Can you think of any other tales that have talking animals?
