

Making inferences from a text

Here is a copy of the newspaper article placed by Shackleton to find crew members for one of his expeditions.

Please answer the following questions.

1. Why do you think Shackleton placed such an advert?
2. What evidence is there that this will be a dangerous trip?
3. What kind of person do you think replied to the advert?
4. Would you have replied? Can you explain your decision?

Yes, I would have replied to go on the trip because...

Or

No, I would not have replied to go on the trip because...
