

Friday 30th April 2021

This week the children (and staff) have been working really hard and there is so much to celebrate, from designing 3D sculptures in Modroc, writing biographies about artists, drawing still life and impressive algebra to name just a few.

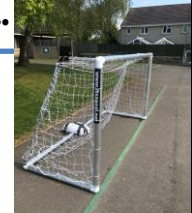

We welcomed talented visitors from The Pound Art Centre, Antonia came to school and ran an art class with Amethyst Class, a step towards us achieving The Arts Mark Award and also Marnie came to visit Year 5 and 6 and led super drama workshops to inspire the children's writing.

I had the pleasure of joining our chair of governors, Chris Denton along with three pupils from Year 6, Bethany, Ghlex and Erin who were the winners of our peacock poster competition, as we took the new road signs and decided on their position to warn drivers of peacocks crossing and asking them to slow down.

I was taken out of my comfort zone on Thursday morning when I went live on BBC Wiltshire Radio to talk about the peacock sign project...all in a days work! Have lovely bank holiday weekend- Abby Symons
