PROUD TO BE A MUSIC MARK SCHOOL

Some of the highlights from our review:

- School leaders form a cohesive team, united by common values and principles. They demonstrate a genuine commitment to the education and wellbeing of pupils. Senior and middle leaders share a common language when talking about curriculum, inclusion and engagement.
- Teachers demonstrate strong subject and subject pedagogical knowledge. They make cross curricular links to deepen understanding of the work covered and enable pupils to apply knowledge across subjects.
- The inclusive culture of the school ensures that pupils with additional needs are supported by both the staff and other pupils.
- Teachers demonstrate strong subject and subject pedagogical knowledge. They make cross curricular links to deepen understanding of the work covered and enable pupils to apply knowledge across subjects.
- Questioning is targeted skilfully to adapt the learning for the pupils within the class. This means that all pupils are engaged and involved in whole class discussions.
